

Children in Reception are not given formal homework but do have reading books and word boxes that are sent home to do at home.